

A Record of Shelford Parva by Fanny Wale - contents

Content notes

The numbers at the bottom of the pages of the original book are inaccurate. The page numbers used below take the cover of the paperback version as p1. P1 in the hardback version is the title page which includes the title, A Record of Shelford Parva, and a pencil drawing of the mill. The numbering is the same as the PDF version.

These are a number of reference points to save you counting every page.

- P10 - has 5 at the bottom right and a drawing of the ruined St Mary's Church at the top.
P21 - has 13 at the bottom and features a yellow map of the village
P30 - has 22 at the bottom right and has a pencil drawing of Low Brooms at the top.
P40 - has 32 at the bottom right and has photo of Hauxton Road at the top of the page.
P50 - has 41 at the bottom and includes black and white pencil drawing of a cottage half way down.
P60 - has 51 at the bottom and includes a black and white pencil drawing of the Church at the top.
P71 - has 59 at the bottom (note 59! on previous page)- and has 2 oval paintings of the old hall.
P80 - has 68 at bottom right and includes a colour painting of Ivy Cottage at the top.

Mr or Mrs has been used for the contents if no Christian name is used by Fanny Wale.

Fanny Wale usually used the husband's name to refer to the wife too i.e. Mrs Charles Gee.

Some references include names only included on maps. -I considered this to be more helpful than not.
