Henry was also sworn in as part of the Homage for the Manorial Court on Thurs 22 Aug 1822, the court at which William Gall the elder hands over his property to his son, also William Gall. See notes for William Gall d1828.

Notes for Ann Dennison:

Ann owned a meeting house let for religious worship. This was part of the estate left to her by her husband. The sources for this are Little Shelford Manorial court records and Ann's will, both of which are held on file. See 'notes' for Henry Northfield.

From the Little Shelford Manorial Court Record book 1823 -1852, ref 305/M116 held at the Cambridge archives. Pages 255 - 263 inc.

A court held on the 11th Nov 1846, 'Admission of C.B. Wale Esq out of Court under Bargain & Sale from the Trustee under the Will of Ann Northfield deceased'..'The promises confirmed in this Admission have been Enfranchised by Deed dated 13th April 1861'. This court dealt with the sale of the estate of Ann Northfield by her executor ' her son in law William Gall of Little Shelford in the County of Cambridge Ropemaker' to C. B Wale for the sum of £140. This document which is held on file gives a full description of the buildings and location of her estate in Little Shelford. The document also contains an abstract of the Indenture of the Bargain and sale referred to, dated 13th June 1846

Ann was a witness to her daughter Jane's marriage on 5th May 1842 - Little Shelford Parish register

The reverse of this document shows the "rates" paid in the Parish of Little Shelford. Ann Northfield is shown to have paid 7s 9d.

The will for Ann can be found in the Consistory Court of Ely probate records. VC57: 175 CW page 787

Ann Northfield is described as 'of Little Shelford in the County of Cambridge Widow I give and bequeath unto my Daughter Ann Dennison Northfield All my Household Furniture Plate Linen China and other Effects situate in the House wherein I now dwell to and for her own absolute use and benefit And as to all the rest residue and remainder of my Personal Estate of whatever nature or description the same may consist of at the time of my decease and wheresoever situate I give and bequeath the same and every part thereof unto my Son in Law William Gall of Little Shelford aforesaid Rope Manufacturer'.

The property which consisted of 'All that Messuage or Tenement situate standing and being in Little Shelford aforesaid together with the Two Cottages and Meeting House let for religious Worship Stable Outbuildings Workshop Cow-house and Premises with the Orchard Garden and Close adjoining thereto containing One Acre or thereabouts', was to be sold, and after the funeral expenses and other debts were settled William was to 'divide the residue or surplus of such Monies unto equally and amongst my Daughters Ann Dennison Northfield and Jane Sadler Gall (the wife of the said William Gall) and Son Robert Northfield in equal Shares'.

There was also a piece of land of about one acre and thirty poles in Little Shelford to which Ann was admitted Tenant in Free under the will of her husband Henry Northfield at court in the Manor of Little Shelford on 19th Feb 1827, a copy of which is held on file.

William was appointed sole executor of the will which was signed on the 19th June 1844. The document shows that Ann died on 31st Aug 1844 and the will was proved on 5th Oct 1844.
